I, PABLO ARAYA, being duly sworn, depose and say:

1. I am employed as a Special Agent (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Department of Justice, and have been so employed for over thirteen years. I am currently assigned to the FBI's Chicago Division as the Fugitive Coordinator and as such, am familiar with fugitive investigations. The information contained in this affidavit was furnished by Detective G. JONES of the Chicago Police Department (CPD) unless otherwise indicated.

2. On September 16, 2001, ROLANDO RODRIGUEZ and his brother LORENZO RODRIGUEZ were shot during a domestic dispute involving rent money in Chicago, Illinois. LORENZO RODRIGUEZ died as a result of the injuries. Subsequent investigation by the CPD identified ROBERTO BARRERA as the suspect in the murder. On September 27, 2001, the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, issued a warrant for the arrest of BARRERA after he was charged with one count of First Degree Murder, a felony. A copy of the arrest warrant is attached to this affidavit.

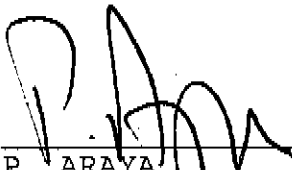

3. Investigation conducted by the CPD failed to locate BARRERA in Chicago. BARRERA's spouse, FAUSTA MATA, and stepchildren, who were witnesses to the shooting, advised CPD investigators that BARRERA fled the Chicago area after the homicide and returned to his native Mexico.

4. A review of MATA's phone records revealed that she received an incoming call from a Houston, Texas telephone number the day after the shootings. MATA confirmed that the call was made by BARRERA, who advised MATA that he was not returning to Chicago. However, as there were no set formal extradition procedures with Mexico at the time, the matter was not pursued.

5. In light of several recent successful extraditions from Mexico, this case was recently reexamined by CPD. On January 27, 2009, CPD requested the assistance of the FBI in locating BARRERA in Mexico.

6. Based upon the information contained in this affidavit, I believe ROBERTO BARRERA fled the State of Illinois to avoid prosecution for First Degree Murder.

7. The Cook County State's Attorney's Office will extradite BARRERA when he is apprehended.
